As adequate protection, PNC will receive the adequate protection described in this Fourteenth Interim Order. In light of such adequate protection, PNC has consented to the Debtor's use of PNC's Cash Collateral, solely on the terms and conditions set forth in this Fourteenth Interim Order. The adequate protection provided herein and other benefits and privileges contained herein are consistent with and authorized by the Bankruptcy Code and are necessary to obtain PNC's consent to the Debtor's use of Cash Collateral.

6. Necessity for Relief Requested. The Debtor does not have sufficient unencumbered cash or other assets to continue to operate its business during the Chapter 11 Case or to effectuate a reorganization. The Debtor will be immediately and irreparably harmed if it is not immediately granted the continued authority to use PNC's Cash Collateral in order to permit, among other things, the continuation of its business, the ability to fund payroll and other taxes, the maintenance of their relations with vendors and suppliers, satisfaction of their working capital needs, as well as the ability to pay for inventory, supplies, overhead, insurance and other necessary expenses and pay any statutory fees pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a)(6). The stipulated terms of the Debtor's use of PNC's Cash Collateral and proposed adequate protection arrangements, as set forth in this Fourteenth Interim Order, are fair and reasonable under the circumstances, and reflect the Debtor's exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with its fiduciary duties.

8. Good Faith. The Debtor's use of Cash Collateral on an interim basis has been negotiated in good faith and at arms' length between and among the Debtor and PNC and PNC's consent to the Debtor's use of Cash Collateral shall be deemed to have been made in "good faith."

The Adequate Protection Lien granted to PNC pursuant to this Fourteenth Interim Order is deemed valid and perfected upon entry of this Fourteenth Interim Order without the necessity of PNC taking possession of, filing financing statements, mortgages, or other documents. 18. PNC and Arch's Competing Interests in Bonded Projects and Proceeds therefrom.

Prior to the Petition Date, Arch executed certain performance and payment bonds (the "Bonds") on behalf of the Debtor including the Bonds bearing bond numbers and for obligees (the "Project Owners") of and for certain of the Debtor's ongoing construction projects (the "Bonded Projects") which Bonds relate to certain of the contracts which the Debtor was performing under as of the Petition Date. Arch contends that progress payments, retainage, change order and claim proceeds that are outstanding and which may be earned with respect to the Bonded Projects (collectively, the "Bonded Project Proceeds"), when held by Project Owners or when paid by Project Owners constitute trust funds for the benefits of laborers, subcontractors, suppliers, and materialmen of the Bonded Projects pursuant to applicable state statutes.

Neither Debtor nor any assignee of Debtor (except for any junior perfected residual interest, if any, held by PNC following payment of the obligations on any Bonded Projects), including but not limited to any lender, shall have, or been deemed to have, any beneficial interest in or lien upon the Bonded Project Proceeds of any Bonded Project unless and until all of that Bonded Project is complete, all bonded obligations arising out of that Bonded Project have been satisfied, and the Bonds relating to that Bonded Project have been released or discharged.

With respect to each of the Bonded Projects, the Debtor and Surety have established separate escrow accounts with PNC as Debtor-in-Possession trust accounts for each such Bonded Project into which all Bonded Project Proceeds shall be deposited (the "Bonded Project Escrow Accounts"). The Bonded Project Proceeds shall be deposited into the respective Bonded Projects

Escrow Accounts, when due and payable by the Bonded Project Owners to Debtor or its assigns. The Surety has designated one or more representatives who shall serve as signatory on each account and, with the Debtor's prior approval or consent, and upon notice to the United States Trustee and the Committee, funds from each such Bonded Project Escrow Account shall be used only to fund the actual and reasonable direct costs from completion of the respective Bonded Project, to pay valid bonded obligations, and to pay trust fund beneficiaries' claims including but not limited to: (a) payment of laborers, payroll taxes on wages paid to such laborers, union fringe benefits funds, subcontractors and materialman for labor, services and materials; (b) payment of the actual, reasonable, and proper claims of and obligations owing to laborers, union fringe benefit funds, subcontractors, suppliers, materialmen, laborers, subcontractors, suppliers to subcontractors for labor, materials or services supplied in furtherance of the Bonded Projects and/or to reimburse the Surety for any such payments made by it under or by virtue of the Bonds; and (c) payment of claims of "beneficiaries," as defined in applicable state law (parties holding such claims are referred to herein as "Trust Fund Beneficiaries").

To the extent that any Bonded Project Proceeds are deemed to be held in trust, whether by statute, contract or other applicable law for any Trust Fund Beneficiary, such Bonded Project Proceeds shall retain their trust status upon their deposit into any escrow account identified in this Fourteenth Interim Order or any previous interim cash collateral order entered by the Court through the transfer of such funds to such Trust Fund Beneficiary.

Nothing in this Fourteenth Interim Order or the previous interim cash collateral orders entered by the Court shall create or impose an obligation on any Project Owner to make a payment that would not otherwise be due and payable to the Debtor.

Notwithstanding any other provisions to the contrary in this Fourteenth Interim Order or the previous interim cash collateral orders entered by the Court, neither Arch, PNC, the Project Owners, nor the Debtor waive or release any defenses, rights and claims with respect to the Bonds, Bonded Projects Proceeds or otherwise, all rights being expressly reserved.

19. The Minerva Entities and Bay Street Entities Bonded Project Escrow Accounts.

Notwithstanding anything in this Fourteenth Interim Order or the previous interim cash collateral orders to the contrary, with respect to the Debtor's Bonded Projects with 10 Minerva Place L.P. and 10 Minerva Place Housing Development Fund Corporation (collectively the "Minerva Entities") and with 5 Bay Street Phase 1 LLC, 5 Bay Street Phase 1 Sponsor Member Inc., and 5 Bay Street Phase 3 LLC (collectively the "Bay Street Entities"), prior to either the Bay Street Entities or the Minerva Entities making a payment to their respective Bonded Project Escrow Account, the Bay Street Entities on their Bonded Project or, as the case may be, the Minerva Entities on their Bonded Project, the Debtor and the Surety shall agree upon the disposition and uses of the funds to be paid by such Project Owner (consents may be provided in writing by electronic mail), including the specific amounts to be paid to one or more Trust Fund Beneficiaries, and the Debtor shall represent to such Project Owner that all notices required by this Fourteenth Interim Order necessary to make such payments to any such Trust Fund Beneficiaries have been provided, and forthwith following the payment by such Project Owner to the Bonded Project Escrow Account established for such Project Owner's Bonded Project, Surety shall pay each such Trust Fund Beneficiary the amounts previously agreed by the Debtor, Surety and such Project Owner.

20. Any Project Owner that properly terminates a contract with the Debtor concerning a Bonded Project (a “Contract”) shall not be required to pay any funds related to the Bonded Project governed by such terminated Contract to the Debtor and pursuant to Paragraph 18 hereof and, with respect to the Minerva Entities and Bay Street Entities Paragraph 19 hereof; provided, however, that a Project Owner that has terminated its Contract may, in its sole discretion and on a case-by-case basis, continue to make use of the escrow payment system currently authorized under Paragraph 18 hereof and, with respect to the Minerva Entities and Bay Street Entities Paragraph 19 hereof, for procedural purposes, provided, however, that any funds paid into such escrow account of the Debtor shall not be deemed to be property of the Debtor, shall be administered by the Surety, and shall be held by the Surety in trust for the benefit of Trust Fund Beneficiaries.

21. Post-Petition Non-Bonded Project Receivables. Various parties in interest including, but not limited to subcontractors, Project Owners, PNC, the Debtor, and others, may assert rights, claims or other interests in the post-petition receivables of the Debtor for work performed or services provided on the Debtor’s non-bonded projects (the “Non-Bonded Project Receivables”). This provision shall not apply to any Non-Bonded Go-Forward Project Settlements or AR Settlements. In order to preserve the rights of all parties in interest, all Non-Bonded Project Receivables received by the Debtor on non-bonded projects after the Petition Date shall be placed into the separate post-petition bank account opened by the Debtor at PNC Bank (the “Non-Bonded Project Post-Petition Account”) with a separate accounting internally by the Debtor for each such non-bonded project. No Non-Bonded Project Receivables or other amounts held in the Non-Bonded Project Post-Petition Account shall be disbursed by the Debtor during the period covered by this Fourteenth Interim Order. Except expressly provided herein, nothing in this Fourteenth Interim Order is intended to adjudicate, waive or release any claims or rights with respect to the Non-Bonded Project Receivables or funds held in the Non-Bonded Post-Petition Account. All rights of all parties in the Non-Bonded Project Receivables are being expressly reserved.

22. Non-Bonded Go-Forward Project Settlements. Notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraph 21 above, to the extent that the Debtor: (a) submits and obtains Court approval for any settlement reached with a Project Owner and as applicable, subcontractors and/or vendors, with respect to any non-bonded go-forward project settlement (as the case may be, a “Settled Non-Bonded Project”), and (b) PNC shall have consented to such settlement (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld), all proceeds paid by the relevant Project Owner in connection with such settlement shall be paid into a separate escrow account at PNC (the “Settled Non-Bonded Project Escrow Account”), and are to be distributed by the escrow agent, SM Financial Services Corporation, to the relevant subcontractors and/or vendors as provided in the applicable settlement agreement free and clear of any lien claims. PNC’s liens and security interests, if any, shall remain attached to and remain perfected upon any proceeds in the Settled Non-Bonded Project Escrow Account in which the Debtor has an interest (but not upon funds payable to Project Creditors pursuant to a Settlement Agreement) and such proceeds will be applied to the obligations outstanding from the Debtor to PNC, and/or to the Debtor’s Cash Collateral needs, and/or the Additional Carve-Out (as defined herein) as and when: (a) the Debtor and PNC reach consensual resolution with respect to such application or use of Cash Collateral, or (b) the Bankruptcy Court so orders such application or use of Cash Collateral upon application by the Debtor or PNC.

23. Accounts Receivable Settlements. Notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraph 21 above, to the extent that the Debtor: (a) submits and obtains Court approval for any settlement reached with a Project Owner, subcontractor and/or vendor on a non-bonded project with respect to any outstanding accounts receivable(s) (an “AR Settlement”), and (b) PNC shall have consented to such AR Settlement (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld), the proceeds of such AR Settlement shall be deposited into the Debtor’s operating account and used only in accordance with the Budget and the applicable Cash Collateral Order.

24. Carve-Out. Upon entry of the Sixth Interim Order, there was deemed to be an aggregate carve out from PNC’s Pre-Petition Collateral (including Cash Collateral), in the following amounts: $75,000 Lowenstein Sandler, LLP, $20,000 for Committee professionals, and $12,000 for Prime Clerk (collectively, the “Carve-Out”). To the extent not already funded, the Carve-Out shall be funded into the applicable professional fee escrow accounts pursuant to the terms of this Fourteenth Interim Cash Collateral Order and the Budget from the escrow account upon entry of this Fourteenth Interim Cash Collateral Order or as soon as practical thereafter. The Carve-Out amounts will only be disbursed to professionals pursuant to the Administrative Fee Order [Docket No. 284].

25. Additional Carve-Out. All terms with respect to the Additional Carve-Out (as defined in the Sixth Interim Order) as set forth in the Sixth Interim Order, the Seventh Interim Order, the Eighth Interim Order, the Ninth Interim Order, the Tenth Interim Order, the Eleventh Interim Order, the Twelfth Interim Order and the Thirteenth Interim Order shall remain in effect hereunder. Additionally, as of the weeks ending March 13, March 20, and March 27, 2020, the Additional Carve-Out shall be increased and applied against the Debtor's receipt of settlement funds from Non-Bonded Project Settlements ("Settlement Proceeds") deposited into the Escrow Account and only after accounting for any funds required by the Debtor for its ongoing operational needs in accordance with any applicable Budget in place between the Debtor and PNC. The Amount of the Additional Carve-Out for each of the weeks ending March 13, March 20, and March 27, 2020 shall be equal to $70,000 weekly ($50,000 Lowenstein Sandler, LLP, $10,000 for Committee professionals, and $10,000 Prime Clerk); provided, however, that such Additional Carve-Out is only payable from Settlement Funds subject to PNC's lien (and not funds payable to Project Creditors pursuant to a Settlement Agreement); and further provided that that such Additional Carve-Out shall be paid to the professionals on a pro rata basis simultaneous with the reduction of the Debtor's obligations to PNC as follows: (a) at the rate of 67% of amounts available in the Escrow Account to PNC from time to time; and (b) at the rate of 33% of amounts available in the Escrow Account to fund the Additional Carve-Out to professionals from time to time up to the maximum amount of the Additional Carve-Out.

The Additional Carve-Out shall survive the termination of this Fourteenth Interim Cash Collateral Order and the expiration of the Fourteenth Cash Collateral Budget period.

Upon further order of the Court – which may occur on shortened notice or pursuant to a Cash Collateral Budget - the cash to pay the Additional Carve-Out shall, concurrently with the applicable pay down of the Debtor's obligations to PNC as noted above, be paid to the applicable professionals into their respective attorney or professional trust accounts and will only be disbursed to professionals pursuant to the Administrative Fee Order [Docket No. 284].

- b) the Debtor’s failure to (i) comply with the Budget and related reporting requirements, or (ii) perform, in any material respect, any of its obligations under this Fourteenth Interim Order;

the automatic stay shall be deemed terminated (except as otherwise ordered by the Court for cause) and PNC shall be entitled to take any action and exercise all rights and remedies provided to it by this Fourteenth Interim Order, the Prepetition PNC Credit Documents, and/or applicable law as PNC may deem appropriate in its sole discretion to, among other things, proceed against and realize upon the assets or properties of Debtor's estate (including the Prepetition PNC Collateral) upon which PNC has been granted liens and security interests.
